

MapsofIndia Unveils Online Quiz Game For Android Devices

DELHI JANUARY 07, 2011 MapsofIndia, a Compare Infobase website and a industry leader in thematic mapping solutions, announced the launch of its fully-featured online India Quiz Game in the Android market, marking its continued commitment and expansion into the burgeoning mobile platform.

MapsofIndia's first of its kind game is developed to reside on Android based computing platforms. The online India Quiz Game offers the large fraternity of mobile and internet users, an unmatched opportunity to tease their brains and pit their wits against thousands of their peers and win exciting prizes. Learning combined with fun and a chance to win loads of cash prizes! Great isn't it?

"Google Android is one of the fastest growing mobile platforms, so the demand for high-quality games continues to surge. Expanding our popular lineup of quiz games onto the emerging Android marketplace brings our collection of contemporary quizzes to more android phones and ultimately, more consumers. We hope to reach a broader audience in more segments and markets than ever before." said Usha V. Sagar, Vice President of MapsofIndia.

The uniquely different India quiz game is designed to test people's knowledge of information and facts about India. The online interactive quiz covers 30 questions on hot topics as diverse as such as Indian Geography, India Cities, States in India, Indian History, Indian Culture and Religion, Indian Cuisine, Politics, Bollywood, Indian Cricket, Sports, Current affairs, and General Indian Trivia.

Whats more!The free online groundbreaking learning tool enables instructors and educators to create mind sharpening quizzes and practice tests for their students.
